DESCRIPTION

Shape the light

The Irix Edge IFH-100 Filter Holder opens up new possibilities in shaping light with its square filters, available in a 100mm standard.

Made of aircraft-aluminium

The Irix Edge IFH-100 Filter Holder is made of aircraft-aluminium. Combined with a black-matt finish, makes holder lightweight and comparable with top-class filter holders, but reasonably priced.

The IFH-100 Filter Holder construction allows to stack up to two filters at the same time. The holder is also the thinnest (137x130x16mm) and the lightest (only 71g.) filter holder at its class that has been made especially for ultra-wide lenses without causing any vignetting effect (such as the Irix 15mm f/2.4, Zeiss 15mm f/2.8, Canon 16-35 f/2.8, Nikon 16-35 f/4 etc).

Fast and easy to use

The Irix Edge IFH-100 Filter Holder is easy and fast to use – the whole holder just snaps by pushing it on the adapter. The whole construction is secured by the spring-loaded mechanism which could be release by pulling the blue-lever up.

Universal size

The holder can be adapted to almost any lens using the lens adapter ring (its diameter ranges from 52mm to 95 mm). Special, quick mount bayonet adapter for Irix 15mm f/2.4 is also available and is included with holder. Other adapters are offered separately.

The design of the IFH-100 Filter Holder allows free rotation of the holder, so you can use it in any positions depending on your needs.
